Date of Meeting Changed.

RICHMOND, Va., Oct. 26.—[Special]—An adjoined meeting of the Richmond Terminal and Warehouse Company was held at the Exchange Hotel to-day. The only business of importance transacted was the changing of the date of the annual meeting from the second Tuesday in December to the Thursday after the first Monday in September.

wife and two children, aged six and four years.

TEN HEARTS THAT BEAT AS FIVE

Many Happy Marriages in Roanoke Yesterday.

Mr. W. F. Carr and Miss Emma E. Voigt

Start the Day's Festivities at 8 o'clock in the Morning—A Brilliant Home

Marriage—A Quiet Wedding in the West End.

Cupid held full sway in Roanoke yesterday and the marriage bells rang out with gleeful sound. Four happy couples were united in the holy bonds.

A beautiful ceremony was solemnized yesterday morning at 8 o'clock at St.
Andrew's Church in which Will A. Carr, the popular sign writer, and Miss Emma E. Voigt, the accomplished daughter of Louis Voigt, were the principals.

W. A. Voigt, a brother of the bride, acted in the capacity of best man, while Miss Annie Manning was the maid of honor.

The other attendants were John A.
Carr with Miss Lena Sherrard and Albert H. Voigt with Miss Rachael Davis.

The flower maids were Regina Carr and Fannie Brophy, respectively the sister and niece of the groom.

As the bridal party entered the church, the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march well rendered by Mrs.
Brophy, a sister of the groom, accompanied with a violin played by J. J.
Keeley, the leader of the Machine Works Band, filled the edifice. They were met in front of the altar by Rev. Father Lynch and according to the rituals of the Catholic Church were made man and wife.

The bride was handsomely attired in cream colored silk, trimmed in lace, and carried a beautiful bouquet of Marchale Neil roses. The bridesmaids wore cream colored dresses, handsomely trimmed.

The ceremony was celebrated by the nuptial high mass, which is generally observed in the Catholic Church. After the ceremony the party repaired to the home of the bride, No. 216 First street n. w., where a sumptuous repast had been prepared, to which none but the relatives of the families were invited.

The presents received were very handsome, costly and numerous, among them a handsome piano from the groom Mr.
Carr, who is the superintendent of St.
Andrew's Sunday-school, was the recipient of a handsome silver service set from the scholars. The choir of the church also presented to him a silver set.

The happy couple were driven to the passenger depot at noon where, after the congratulations and good bye's were said, they were plentifully showered with rice and old shoes. They then left on a wedding tour to Norfolk, Baltimore and Washington, with the best wishes of their many friends.

FITZGERALD—KESTER.

The residence of W. J. Kester, No.
329 Eighth avenue s. e., was the scene of a quiet and beautiful home wedding last night at 9 o'clock, at which a large number of invited guests were present.

The contracting parties were Mr. D.
Crawley Fitzgerald and Miss Sadie C., the accomplished and popular daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kester. The wedding party entered the parlor to the strains of a wedding march.

The bride was given away by her father, E. Blackwell, who was best man and Miss Bertie Kester, a sister of the maid of honor. The other attendants were Norman Eppe with Miss Lillian Seals and Pryor Fitzgerald with Miss Lillian Janelle. The couple stood under a handsome arch made of evergreens that led into a bay window. A large bell made of chrysanthemums hung suspended from the arch.

Rev. W. F. Hamner spoke the words which made them man and wife. The bride was handsomely attired in white china silk, trimmed in pointed lace with pearl ornaments, and carried a beautiful bouquet of Marchale Neil roses. The bridesmaids were dressed in cream nun's veiling with Marchale Neil roses.

After the ceremony and congratulations the guests assembled in the dining-room, where the tables were fairly groaning with good things, to which all present did ample justice. The presents received were very costly and beautiful. The young couple will reside in this city.

HATCHER—CAMPELL.

Greene Memorial Church was the scene of a quiet and beautiful wedding ceremony last night at 8 o'clock. Mr.
W. W. Hatcher, an employee of the Roanoke Machine Works, in the presence of a number of friends, led to the hymenial altar Miss Bertha Campbell, an accomplished young lady of this city.

Mrs. W. H. Payne presided at the organ and rendered a beautiful wedding march. Rev. W. F. Hamner joined the happy pair in the holy bonds of wedlock. Will Francis acted in the capacity of best man and Miss Fannie Campbell, sister of the bride as maid of honor.

The ushers were Messrs. Tiplady, Henry Neal, L. N. Foster and Frank Moonaw. The presents received were costly and numerous.

MUSE MINNIX.

At the residence of D. M. Minnix, near the Norwich Lock Works, yesterday morning at 11 o'clock, Benjamin F.
Muse and Miss Bertie A. Minnix were united in marriage in the presence of a few intimate friends. Rev. Lee Adkins performed the ceremony. After the wedding a reception was tendered the young people and the guests repaired to the dining room, where the tables were loaded with good things to eat, to which all present did justice. The happy couple will reside in this city.

CALVERT—HALLER.

At 7 o'clock last night at the residence of the bride's parents on Edgewood street, Mr. A. L. Calvert, an employee of the Roanoke Machine Works, was united in marriage to Miss Carrie M. Haller.
Rev. W. F. Hamner performed the ceremony which made the two one, after which the friends present repaired to the dining room where the tables were loaded with good things to eat. The young couple left on the 9:45 northbound train on an extended Northern wedding tour to Baltimore, Washington and other places of interest.

RICHMOND'S INDUSTRIES.

The Census Office Issues a Bulletin Giving Comparative Figures.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 26.—[Special]—A census bulletin issued to-day gives a comparative statement of the manufacturing industries of Richmond, Va., for 1880 and 1890. They are summarized as follows: Number of industries in 1880, 76; in 1890, 104; number of establishments reporting, 598 and 950; capital, $5,881,386 and $15,698,897; hands employed, 14,017 and 18,151; wages paid, $3,066,456 and $6,979,497; cost of materials used, $12,141,512 and $12,646,308; value of products, $20,790,196 and $25, 890,569.

The chief industries reporting, in number and amount of capital, are the tobacco industries. These aggregate 79 establishments, with a capital of $5,346, 935. Next comes the iron foundries and machine shops, with 15 establishments and a capital of $2,389,155. The aggregate value of the tobacco product is stated at $9,095,530.

TO BRING OUT THE VOTE.

Both Republicans and Democrats Working Hard in Chicago.

CHICAGO, Oct. 26.—[Special]—Both the Republican and Democratic State committees are working hard to bring out the full registration. The Republican committee has sent out 25,000 postal card notices during the last twenty-four hours to Republicans who have not registered in their respective precincts notifying them that they may register to-morrow between the hours of 8 a. m. and 8 p. m. These cards also bear the notification to the unregistered Republicans that if they do not register tomorrow they cannot vote. In addition to the cards other cards of notification will be served on some of the voters.
Hundreds will also be notified personally and in some wards conveyances will be sent after the indolent or infirm voters Tuesday.

A Freight Car Blockade.

CHICAGO, Oct. 26.—[Special]—There are 10,000 loaded grain cars in Chicago, and there is absolutely no place to unload them. Every elevator is crammed to the top. Few of the shippers are inclined to pay railroad rates and a majority do not care to take it at any price.
The reason for the lack of lake transportation is that every elevator from Toledo to Buffalo seems as full as those in Chicago. East-bound lines from Chicago are beginning to hold their cars as a miser does his gold. If they took every traffic offered them they might easily see the time within a few weeks when all their cars would be used as store houses on the trunk line side tracks. Exactly this state of affairs is coming out on a less degree on the Western roads. In spite of their best attempts cars are being piled up in Chicago at a rate which will soon make the blockade of last year an insignificant affair.

The President Issues Two Pardons.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 26.—[Special]—The President forgot his own sorrow to-day long enough to consider the cases of Marshal Wheeler and Lee King, a Chinese, two convicts who are now lying at the point of death, the former in the York county, S. C. jail and the latter in the Albany, N. Y., penitentiary. Marshal Wheeler was convicted in South Carolina for violating the internal revenue laws and sentenced August 18, 1892, to six months' imprisonment. He is suffering from typhoid fever, and it was represented to the President that he would surely die unless he had the benefit of purer air than he can get in his prison cell. Lee King is dying from a cancer and is in need of immediate relief. Their cases appealed particularly to the President in his own affliction and he ordered pardons to be issued in both cases.

The Richmond and Danville Bonds.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 26.—[Special]—A plan for depositing those underlying bonds of the Richmond and Danville railroad system, on which the interest has not been paid, has been prepared and is now in the hands of counsel for the bondholders' committee for approval. As soon as it is adopted the interested bondholders will take action to protect their interests in the three properties immediately concerned.

MR. CLEVELAND AT BUFFALO.

Federal Supervisors Asked for in Watson's District.

Adlai Stevenson Given an Ovation in Brooklyn—He Addresses an Audience of 4,000 People—Senator Hill Arrives in Lynchburg—Other Reports From the Political Battlefields.

New York, Oct. 26.—[Special]—The reception given at the Imperial Hotel to-night to ex-President Cleveland by the Buffalonian Cleveland Club was attended by about 200 persons, consisting of members of the club and a few invited guests. Mr. Cleveland reached the hotel at 8:30 o'clock accompanied by the committee appointed to escort him. His arrival was the occasion for applause.

All of the company remained standing until the speeches of the evening, which lasted for almost an hour, were over. Among the members of the club present were the following: E. C.
Benedict, president of the club, Al.
Dubarry, Robert Hayes and John Clifton, vice-presidents; Charles F. Bishop, mayor of Buffalo, and Editor Norman E. Mack, of Buffalo.

On calling the assemblage to order Mr. Benedict said: "I can only call you to order and plunge into that disorder which usually reigns during a time of social gatherings, for such a one is this.
Sometime ago this club received an application from our guest, Mr. Cleveland, accompanied by the requisite two dollars initiation fee.

"I was constrained at first to return the money and lay the matter of receiving Mr. Cleveland without $3 before the club, but I remembered the business part of it and kept the money, and we took Mr. Cleveland in the same as we would any other member. Cleveland meets to-night a number of stray Buffaloes and he may want to lock horns with them in the exchange of a few words and in eating cheese and crackers. It would be ludicrous for me to introduce him."

When Mr. Benedict concluded Mr.
Cleveland spoke for fifteen or twenty minutes, devoting himself principally to personal reminiscences of the time when he was an active worker in the ranks of the local D-m crazy or, as he expressed it, when he, in company with some of those present, marched in a procession with noise and kerosene lamps which sometimes dripped oil down their backs.

In the pleasure of those recollections, he said, he nearly forgot that the present organization had political aims and objects, and he devoted a few closing words to that subject. "Therefore," he said, "while my heart is full of gratitude to the friends I see about me I cannot forbear the suggestion of my belief that your organization not only demonstrates your personal friendship for an old townsman, but it also indicates that you are fully alive to your duty as good citizens."

"You know how devoted I am to principles of Democratic party and your knowledge of me will, I am sure, acquit me of insincerity when I express the opinion that the result of pending political struggle means more to our country and our people than any in which you or I have ever been engaged. On one side the claim is defiantly and arrogantly announced that the functions of our government may be used directly for the benefit of certain special interests, with at best a very remote regard to the welfare of the masses of the people.

In opposition to this an appeal is made to our fellow citizens to hold fast to the doctrines that their government should be administered directly for them, and that they should not be obliged to receive as their share of the blessings of free government they maintain a small portion which may filter through to them in the process of making special beneficiaries rich."

Lieutenant Governor Sheehan, who was present, was called upon and said that he had no doubt that the vote of New York State would go for Cleveland and Stevenson.

IN TOM WATSON'S DISTRICT

SAVANNAH, Oct. 26.—[Special]—A petition to Judge Don A. Pardee, of the circuit court, from Richmond and Wilkinson counties, in Watson's district, asks for the appointment of federal election supervisors on the ground of irregularity in the recent election which is likely to occur in the national election. Upon the receipt of the petition Judge Pardee issued the following order which was filed in the circuit court to-day.
"H. H. King, Clerk of United States Circuit Court, Savannah, Ga.
"MY DEAR SIR:—Inclosed find the petitions from Wilkinson and Richmond counties in the southern district of Georgia, for the appointment of supervisors of election and deputy United States marshals, which please file in your office at the proper place and notify the chief supervisor of southern district of Georgia thereof. Also notify him, and perhaps you can convey the same information to newspapers, that I have designated Judge Speer to open court in the southern district of Georgia for election purposes in order to appoint supervisors of elections as contemplated by the statutes of the United States.
Very truly yours, DON A. PARDEE."

The chief supervisor of elections has been notified and will prepare papers necessary to the appointment of supervisors at once.

STEVENSON IN BROOKLYN.

Democracy of Brooklyn turned out in force to-night and held a great mass meeting in the Academy of Music, where Gen. Adlai E. Stevenson, Vice-Presidential candidate, and Congressman Rayner, of Maryland, spoke on the issues of the campaign. Over 4,000 people, many of whom were ladies, were crowded in the spacious amphitheatre, and nearly five hundred prominent Democratic citizens occupied seats on the stage. Among these were Hugh McLaughlin, the leader of the Kings County Democracy; Judge Jacob New, Mayor David A. Boody, District Attorney James W. Ridgeway, Jos. C. Hendrix, Congressman Thos. F. Magnus and Felix Campbell.

Thomas E. Pearsall, chairman of the committee of arrangements, in calling the meeting together said that the Democracy of Brooklyn were thoroughly in earnest in their determination to roll up an unprecedented majority on the 8th of November for the standard-bearers of national Democracy. He then introduced as chairman of the meeting Mayor Boody, who spoke on the leading issues of the campaign, and then introduced, in eulogistic terms, the orator of the evening, Adlai E. Stevenson. Gen.
Stevenson received an ovation as he stepped forward to deliver his speech, the great audience rising to its feet, waving handkerchiefs and wildly cheering.

ANOTHER DEMOCRATIC CONVERT.

MINNEAPOLIS, Oct. 26.—[Special]—It was announced at a late hour last night that John P. Rea, ex-commander-in-chief of the Grand Army of the Republic, will vote the Democratic ticket at the election in November. It is said that Judge Rea's conversion from Republicanism is partly brought about by the Cleveland pension vetoes. Speaking of the matter Judge Rea said after exhaustive examination of the matter he failed to find a single veto that was not based upon the principles of right and justice. He also states that the Republican party is wrong in its tariff theories.

HILL IN LYNCHBURG.

LYNCHBURG, Oct. 26.—[Special]—Senator David B. Hill arrived here this afternoon at 5:45. He was met at the depot by three Democratic clubs, several military companies and a brass band. The artillery fired a salute to the great Democrat stepped from the Pullman car, and a big procession followed him to the Norvell-Arlington, where he will stop during his stay in the city.

Important Railroad Changes.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 26.—[Special]— Vice-President Young, of the Reading road, to-day made the following official announcement: A. A. McLeod was this afternoon elected president of the Boston and Maine road. At the same time and as an incident to the same transaction, the friends of the Philadelphia and Reading railroad have obtained control of the New York and New England railroad. There important connections, in addition to the Poughkeepsie bridge, now also in control of the Reading, give that system its own channels of access to New England and the Canadas.

More Trouble at Homestead.

HOMESTEAD, Pa., Oct. 26.—[Special]— The reign of terror which has been inaugurated by the strikers at this place still continues, and it is hard to tell what the final result will be. There is a strong feeling among the law abiding citizens in favor of petitioning the Governor to have the troops returned and the town put under martial law.
They consider this the quickest and most effective way of establishing peace, where violence is now supreme.
Murderous assaults by strikers upon non union men are of a daily and nightly occurrence.

Bill Dalton Will Bring Suit.

COFFEYVILLE, Kan., Oct. 26.—[Special]—Bill Dalton, brother of the exorminated outlaws, is here and says he is going to bring suit against the city of Coffeyville for $10,000 damages because the pockets of the dead bandits were rifled after they were shot down. He claims they had $900 of their own money and that he knows who got it. It is believed that Attorney Luther Perkins, of this place, put the idea into Bill Dalton's head and will take the case on a contingent fee. Emmet Dalton is on the road to rapid recovery and will soon be in a condition to be arraigned.

Run Down by a Train.

CANTON, Pa., Oct. 26.—[Special]— Ellsworth Congdon and Wm. Streeter, of East Troy, Pa., were killed at the depot here last night, and J. J. Vankirk, of Granville, Pa. was badly injured. The Republicans here had had a grand rally and parade. After the parade there was a big crowd at the depot to take an excursion train home.
The East Troy band was playing, standing on the track, when a freight train came along and struck the crowd. Congdon was a member of the band. Vankirk will probably recover.
